THE MAN WORKER'S D'MORSE'S INVICORATING CORDIAL

POR GENITAL PEBILITY, IMPOTENCY, INCONTINENCE, OR NOOTURNAL EMISSIONS, &c.—The astronishing success which has attended this invaluable medicine, for Loss of Muscular Energy, Physical Lastitude, and General Prostration, or any of the consequences of youthful indiscretion, or indulgence of the passion in riper years, renders it the most valuable preparation ever discovered in fact, as a remedy for the above complaints, it stands unrivalled and alone. There is no other reliable remedy, or any that has authentically received the sanction of the Medical Faculty. The WONDERFUL VEGETABLE PRODUCTION of which this medicine is composed has been tested, and its virtues proclaimed, by the highest names of the faculty of London, Paris, and the chief cities of Europe, as well as by eminent Physicians in this country. It is the only infailible remedy for NERVOUS, HEAD, and MIND COMPLAINTS—the mental physic so long sought for and never before found—the only agent that can administer to MIND DISEASES. It will remove all nervous affections, DEPRESSION, EXCITEMENT, incapacity to study or business, loss of MEMORY, CONFUSION, thoughts of self-destruction, fear of insanity, &c. It will restore the appetite, renew the health of those who have destroyed it by some that these disorders, emissions, &c., were incurable. This, however, is not the fact.

DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL has cured, and is constantly curing, these complaints—relieving the mental and bodily incapacity of the unfortunate sufferer, as

DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL has cured, and is constantly curing, these complaints—relieving the mental and bodily incapacity of the unfortunate sufferer, as the following testimony of the names received will conclusively show:

Dr. Woodward, of ——, Massachusetts Insane Hospital, writes of one of his patients being cured by using this Cordial thus: "It gives me pleasure to inform you that one of my patients, while in Boston, precured some of your Cordial. He tells me that he has not had a single emission since he commenced taking it, while before he had two or three a week. When he applied to me," says Dr. W., "I thought it hardly pessible for him ever to regain his full strength. I prescribed the usual medicine used in those cases in the hospital, but they had no effect. In the mean time he purchased some of your Cordial, which has effected a cure I am sure no other medicine would. I shall ever recommend it, whenever an opportunity occurs."

a cure I am sure no other medicine would. I shall ever commend it, whenever an opportunity occurs."

The nature of the maladies relieved by this Cordial argenerally such as to leave the publication of certificates cures out of the question. The proprietor could produce host of the most conclusive testimeny to show that the gree reputation it enjoys was not accidentally obtained, but firmly based upon its pestitive and apparently miraculor virtues. In all directions are to be found the happy parent beautiful of the superior of beautiful offered and the superior of the of healthy offsprings, who would not have been so but for this extraordinary preparation. And it is equally poter for many diseases for which it is recommended. THE MEDICAL JOURNALS have not, in a single instance that has been authenticate given their sanction to any other preparation for the abor complaints. It has, in many violent and desperate case effected radical cures, after patients had been abandone and their condition recognition recognition are preparated because he medical executions. and their condition pronounced hopeless by medical tioners of high professional character. THE COMMON EXPRESSION

THE COMMON EXPRESSION of those who have used this Extract is: "I had heard your Cordial highly spoken of, but was one of the incredulous in regard to its merits, having tried various medicines sold for the same purpose, (different Sarsaparillas,) without deriving any benefit. I had almost given up all hope of obtaining relief, when I purchased some of your Cordial. I had no faith whatever of its benefiting me—but it has. I feel stronger, have had no emissions since, although it is not three weeks. I am satisfied that the half a dozen bottles I took will cure me."

Another says: "I had consulted several distinguished physicians. Some said I could not be cured; others prescribed this thing and that; but I found no relief until I procured some of your Cordial. I must say it completely brilliant hopes or anticipations, rendering Marriage, etc., impossible.

A CURE WARRANTED, OR NO CHARGE.

Young Men especially, who have become the victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to ecstacy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

Marriad persons, or those contemplating marriage, being aware of physical weakness, should immediately consult Dr. J., and be restored to perfect health.

DR. JOHNSTON,
Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known. Many troubled with ringing in the ears and head when saleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at suddon sounds, and bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by private and improper indulgences, that secret and solitary habit, which ruln both body and mind, unfitting them for habit, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business or society.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dinness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Deblity, Symptoms of Consumption, &c., &c.

Mentally.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion of Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

NERVOUS DEBILITY.

Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

NERVOUS DEBILITY.

Weakness of the system, Nervous Debility and premature decay generally arise from the destructive habit of youth, that solitary practice se fatal to the healthful existence of man, and it is the young who are most spt to become its Victims, from an ignorance of the dangers to which they subject themselves. Parents and Guardians are often misled with respect to the cause or source of disease in their sons and wards. Alas! how often do they aseribe to other causes the wasting of the frame, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, derangement of the Nervous System, Cough, and Symptoms of Consumption; also those serious Mental effects, such as loss of Memory, Depression of Spirits, or peculiar fits of Melancholy, when the truth is, they have been caused by indulging in Pernicious but alluring practices, destructive to both Body and Mind. Thus are swept from existence thousands who might have been of use to society.

Society.
DR. JOHNSTON'S INVIGORATING REMEDY FOR ORGANIC WEAKNESS.

DR. JOHNSTON'S INVIGORATING REMEDY FOR ORGANIC WEAKNESS.

This grand and important Remedy has restored strength and vigor to thousands of the most debilitated individuals, many who had lost all hopes, and been abandoned to dis. By its complete invigoration of the Nervous System, the whole faculties become restored to their proper power and functions, and the fallen fabric of life is raised up to beauty, consistency and duration, upon the ruins of an emacdated and premature decline, to sound and pristine health. Oh, how happy have hundreds of misguided youths been made, who have been suddenly restored to health from the devastations of those terrific maladies which result from indiscretion! Such persons, before contemplating should reflect that a sound mind and bedy are the most necessary requisities to promote commubial happiness. Indeed, without this, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own. Let no false delicasy prevent you, but apply immediately.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. Johnston may religiously confide in his honor as a Gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a Physician.

The many thousands cured at this institution within the last ten years, and the numerous important Surgical Operations performed by Dr. J., witnessed by the Reporters of the papers and many other persons, notices of which have appeared again and again before the public, is a sufficient guara-ty that the afflicted will find a skilful and honorable physician.

TAKE NOTICE. It is with the greatest reluctance that Dr. Johnston permits his card to appear before the public, deeming it unprofessional for a physician to advertise; but unless he did so, the afflicted, especially strangers, could not fail to fall into the hands of those imprudent, boasting impostors—individuals destitute of knowledge, name, and character—pellars, shoemakers, mechanics, &c., advertising themselves as physicians; ignorant quacks, who keep you trifling month after mouth, as long as possible, and in despair leave you with ruined health to sigh over your galling disappointment. It is this motive alone that induces Dr. J. to advertise, for healone care you. To those unequainted with his reputation the deems it necessary to say, that his credentials or diplomas always hang in his Office.

AMERICAN TELEGRAPH. the invitation had been given, he would like to General Pierce on Abolitionism.

General Pierce is supported upon his avowal of the most decided pro-slavery sentiments. We purpose proving the insincerity of this avowal, or of his past acts. To the expression of his opinions he is heartily welcome; but, if guilty of duplicity, he is unworthy of the suffrages of his countrymen. Read, and determine for yourselves!

PIERCE AND HIS ABOLITION ALLIES. NUMBER ONE.

Very often slight circumstances will serve to fix character beyond the possibility of doubt or difficulty. This is particularly true of public men. When called to act on subjects of para-mount importance, when they know that the gaze of the nation is upon them, they frequently shape their course with a view to party advantage or personal aggrandizement. Hence we find in the conduct of many, especially such as are under-steed to aspire to the Presidency, no high states-manship, but a grovelling subserviency to the whims and caprices of the day, and an incessant repetition of acts which can be regarded only as lowest species of political checker-playing. But when men of this sort have occasion to speak or vote on subjects of little moment, they are often caught off their guard, and views, motives, and purposes stand revealed to the world. Indeed, we are of the opinion, that action on such matters is the best criterion of character, and, therefore, we call the attention of the country to the votes of FRANKLIN PIERCE on the following

"CHAP. 257.—An act authorizing Ed. Brooke to remove to the District of Columbia two slaves owned by him prior to his removal from Vir-

"Be it enacted, &c., That Edmund Brooke, of Georgetown, in the District of Columbia, be authorized, and permission is hereby granted him, to bring from the State of Virginia, into the said District of Columbia, two negro slaves, namely, John and Alfred, the preperty of said Brooke; and to have and to exercise the same rights of property and of ownership over the said slaves, as if they had been brought by the said Brooke into the said District at the time of his removal to the said District of Columbia, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding. This act shall be in force from its passage. "Approved, June 30, 1834."

ADDISON WHITE, of Ky.

The votes of Mr. Pierce on the above bill may be found in the House Journal, 1st session 23d Congress, pp. 743-'4-'5. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, JUNE 12th, 1884.

"The House then proceeded to the consideration of the engrossed bill (No. 132) for the relief of Edmund Brooke; when "It was negatived—yeas 69, nays 95."

FRANKLIN PIERCE voting in the affirmative, and with him John Quincy Adams, William Slade, and other bitter opponents of slavery.

"And, after debate on the said bill, the previous question was moved by Mr. Clay, and, being demanded by a majority of the members present, it was put, viz: Shall the main question be

Yes, that man who was, by every Democratic press, and from every stump occupied by a Democratic declaimer, stigmatized as an abolitionist of the deepest dye, voted for this bill, while FRANKLIN PIERCE was so full of antislavery prejudice he could not entertain it for a And what was the note of alarm which stood at the head of the columns of every Democratic paper south of the Potomac-it was 'ELECTORS" beware, you cannot sustain ZACHARY TAYLOR without voting for MILLARD FILLMORE, the abolitionist !! And yet the same Mr. Fillmore has proved one of the most liberal and truly cathelic Presidents we have had since the days of Washington; and we do not besitate to say, there will be as much difference between Millard Fillmore, President, and Franklin Pierce, (should be per chance become such,) as there was between FILLMORE'S YEA and PIERCE'S NAY on the bill for the relief of Edmund Brooke. It is manifest the extraordinary course of Mr. Pierce on this subject throws "no inconsiderable light on a question which is now before the public, and that is, what he Pierce really said in his speech on the subject of slavery, at New Boston, New Hampshire, last winter; that he, in fact, addressed a public assembly at that place by that faction at home. (January 2d) no one pretends to deny; of this speech two separate and independent reports were made and published, one in the "Indepen-dent Democrat," at Concord, and the other in dent Democrat," at Concord, and the other in the "Democrat," at Manchester-both in the same State-and there is a wonderful coincidence between them. We produce extracts here for comparison:

Concord Democrat. "A elergyman, whe was present, said, that, as edge of the subject.

make an inquiry: 'Do you regard the features of the fugitive slave law as consistent with common law?

"General Pierce immediately replied: 'If must answer the question, I say no, I do not. I have been asked if I like this fugitive slave law. I answered no, I loathed it. I have a most revolting feeling at the giving up of a slave; the law is opposed to humanity."

"Here Mr. Foss inquired 'If it was not opposed to right as well as humanity?" General Pierce replied, "Yes, it is opposed to moral right.'"

Manchester Democrat.

"The speaker now took up the subject of slavery; he said it was the greatest trouble of the country, and was so regarded by Washington. As for himself, he 'never saw a human being in bondage without feeling his heart revolt at it. Slavery is contrary to the Constitution in some respects—a moral blot upon the character of the nation—but it can't be helped.' " *

"Here Mr. Foss said that, without interrupt-ing the speaker, he wished to make an inquiry: "If in no particular different, why was it neces sary to pass the present law." General P. replied that the old law could not be executed, because its execution depended on the State courts. He also said something, which was not fully understood, about the law of 1793, as based partly on the common law. He was then asked, "Was either the law of

'93, or the present law, founded in any degree upon the common law?" General Pierce: "I can't go into a disquisition upon the common law." The inquiry was then made, "Do you regard the features of the fugitive slave law as consistent with common law?"

General Pierce: "Well, if I must answer, No I do not. I have been asked whether I liked this fu-gitive slave law. I answered, No. I have a most revolting feeling at the giving up of a slave; the fugitive slave law is opposed to humanity. [Here some one inquired, 'Is it not opposed to right?'] Yes, it is opposed to moral right. But our fathers made the made by General Franklin Pierce, at New Boscompact, and we must fulfil it. I say nothing of the humanity of it, nothing of the right of it."

We now have before us a copy of the "The Democrat," published at Manchester, N. H., January 8, 1852, by which we verify the above extract. The matter below the asterisks has been republished, and circulated all over the country, but we add the preceding matter, reported as part of the same speech, as material to

We are sensible that "Tur Union" denies the correctness of these statements, and is excessively clamerous and abusive. In that paper (July 20,) is published a communication, dated July 19, signed "M. Norris, Harry Hibbard, C. H. signed "J. M. Campbell."

They are as follows-Washington, July 19, 1852.

To the Editor of the Union: DEAR SIR: Herewith we transmit a letter from B. F. Ayer, Esq., of Manchester, New Hampshire, and an extract of one from J. M. Campbell. Esq., of the same place, in relation to a speech made by General Pierce, at New Beston, New Hampshire, in December last; pretended reports of which, copied from two abolition prints in New Hampshire, have appeared in the Republic and been republished in other Whig papers.

Messrs. Ayer and Campbell were both present at the meeting in question. They are gentlemen of intelligence and of the highest respectability, whose statements require no endorsement wherever they are known. Mr. Ayer was one of the speakers at that meeting, and, as we are advised, took notes of Gen. Pierce's remarks at the time. You are at liberty to make such use of these letters as you think proper. It will be seen that nd noint "The title of the bill was then amended to version of General Pierce's remarks. Any number of similar certificates, from the most reliable persons present on that occasion, as we are informed, can and will be furnished, if necessary. The papers from which the reports referred t were taken, are organs of the abelition faction in New Hampshire. They are known to us to be now, and to have long been, avowedly and bitterly opposed to the principles and erganization of the Democratic party generally, and particularly vindictive and mendacions in regard to General Pierce, before and since his nomination, at Baltimore. Their character is such as to render any contradiction of their unfounded statereents an unnecessary labor wherever their repu-

Very respectfully, your obedient servants, M. NORRIS. HARRY HIBBARD,

C. H. PEASLEE. We make from the letter of Mr. Aver the fol owing extracts, being everything material to the point in issue :

MANCRESTER, July 15, 1852 DEAR SIR: I have just noticed in a late number of the "Republic," two communications ta-ken from the "Manchester Democrat," published here, and the "Independent Democrat," published at Concord, purperting to give a report of a speech made by General Pierce, last December, at New Boston. Nothing could be more false and calumnious than the account there given of General Pierce's remarks. I was present at the of the Democratic nominees for Congress, includmeeting, with several others from this city, and remember very distinctly the drift and substance of his speech.

It is wholly untrue that he pronounced it (the fugitive slave law) contrary to "moral right; but, on the centrary, in reply to a question pro posed by an Aboltionist present, he said the present law was the same, in principle and substance, as that which had received the approval of Washington, and many other of the wisest and purest among the founders of the republic. Mr. Ayer then goes on to produce extracts from the editorials of the two papers, written since Mr. Pierce became a candidate, to prove that they are hostile to his nomination—but what has that to do with the subject? The letter of Mr. Ayer is addressed to the Hon. H. Hib-

We reproduce the letter of Mr. Campbern ixactly as it appears in the Union :

MANCHESTER, (N. H.,) July 15, 1852, DEAR SIR: I observe in the Republic of Tuesday last an article copied from the abolition "Democrat" of this city, purporting to give an account of the speech of Gen. Pierce, at New Boston, in December last. I need not tell you that the account is a tissue of falsehoods from beginning to end; but as others, less familiar than yourself with New Hampshire politics and politicians, cannet be presumed to have the same assurance, I enclose two or three copies of the late emissions from the abolition press here, to show the estimation in which Gen. Pierce is held

You will hear from us again, and speedily, in reference to the New Boston meeting. Very truly, yours, J. M. CAMPBELL.

Here it will be observed-

Hon. M. NORRIS.

1. That Messrs. Norris, Hibbard, and Peasled have not, and do not pretend to have, any knowl-

2. That Mr. Ayer speaks of a meeting in Desember, whereas the meeting at which General Pierce spoke, was held on the 2d of January. 3. He pretends merely to remember "the drift and substance of his speech"-how, then, can he say, with any confidence, that a report of certain words, as uttered by Gen. P., "is false and calumnious ?"

4. He admits "an abolitionist present" proposed a question to the speaker, and that he (the speaker) replied. In this respect, he agrees exactly with the two "Democrats." He admits, also, that the question respected the fugitive slave law, and that the speaker replied on that subject; why does he not tell us what he said? He contents himself with a mere negation—"it is wholly untrue that he pronounced it contrary to moral right." What is this but affirming that he, Mr. A., does not recollect such language?

5. Mr. Campbell really makes no allegation; all he says is, "I need not tell you that the ac-There may be several reasons why a man end. need not tell this or that; one would be the falsity of the statement, if made. But the language is, "I need not tell you," i. e. Mr. Nor-ris—thus intimating that he (Mr. N.) knew all about it, which no one asserts.

6. But suppose we take Mr. Campbell's statement as positive, what does it amount to? Is it not more feeble than the loose and negative testimony of Mr. Ayer? The reader will observe how quick be dodges off to another subject, as if unwilling to dwell on this, and will note, also, an important higgs in the letter. Mr. Norris! what was in that hiatus? Let us have "the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth."

But in the Republic of July 29th we find satisfactory proof of the correctness of the reports as given in two "Democrats," as follows: Letter of Mesers, Tuck and Perkins,

"WASHINGTON, July 28, 1852. " To the Editor of the Republic :

made by General Franklin Pierce, at New Boston, New Hampshire, in the month of January last. With a view of shielding General Pierce from the responsibility of the remarks imputed to him, our colleagues in Congress, Messrs. Moses Norris, jr., Charles H. Peaslee, and Harry Hibbard, have published a letter, intended to discredit the two newspapers in New Hampshirethe Manshester Democrat and the Independent Democrat—in which a report of General Pierce's speech was published at the time. Their letter was published in the Republic of the 19th instant, and we call your attention to the following paragraph, contained in the same.

... They (the Manchester Democrat and the Peaslee," enclosing two letters, one dated "Man-chester, July 15, 1852," signed "B. F. Ayer." and the other, the same place and same date, of the Democratic party generally, and particu-Independent Democrat) are known to us to be larly vindictive and mendacious in regard to Gen. Pierce, before and since his nomination, at Bal-timore. Their character is such as to render any contradiction of their unfounded statements an unnecessary labor, wherever their reputation is "On the subject of the anti-slavery resolves, instructions to members of Congress, the antislavery professions and protestations, now at tributed in the public papers either to General Pierce, or to our colleagues, we have nothing to eay. But when our colleagues, in a sort of offi-cial communication, seek to protect any man from what they consider a grave charge, by at-tempting to demolish the reputation, at the seat of government, of two respectable newspapers in our State, and, consequently, the reputation of the conductors of those papers, we deem it our duty to indicate our own judgment in the premises. "The wholesale charge of mendacity and infamy of reputation, wherever known, contained extract has ast we doubt not, astonish all the people of New Hampshire whose political animosity has not got the entire control of their understandings. the above villification of the fair character of George G. Fogg, esq., editor of the "Independent Democrat," and of John H. Goodale, esq., editor of the Manchester "Democrat," had first appeared in any New Hampshire newspaper, we should not have thought any notice required from us. But being made here, where Mr. Fogg and Mr. Goodale are but little known, and in a semi-official manner, we think it demanded of us to enter upon the record our denial of the justice of the charge made by our colleagues. That the papers in question have been 'malignant,' or mendacious,' or that 'their character is such as to render any contradiction of their statements an unnecessary labor, wherever their reputation is known,' we deny as emphatically and positively as our colleagues have made the charge; and for the decision of this issue we appeal to the soher-minded people of New Hampshire. Political hostility and partisan differences of opinion may destroy the judgment of some men; but we have confidence that the great majority of the people of our State will form a just opinion, and condemn the attack which our colleagues have made John H. Goodale, Esq., has always professed to be a Democrat, and through his paper has given efficient support to all the Democratic nomina-tions for the Presidency since 1840, and has always had at the head of his columns the names ing the names of our colleagues for the scats which they now occupy. In 1848 he made as spirited a fight against John Van Buren, Henry B. Stanton, and many others of the present supporters of General Pierce, as did any one in our State. He has, for a year past or more, been in a controversy with his late Democratic brethren. Our colleagues say, in a part of their letter not published above, that his paper has long been an abolition organ. We are not aware that Mr. Goodale has advocated any sentiments on the topic of slavery, since his paper ceased to be an acknowledged organ of the Democracy, dif-ferent from what he advocated before. We believe he possesses a fair reputation wherever he is known, which his reviler cannot mar or destroy.

We are still more surprised at the attempt of our colleagues to brand with discredit the reputation of George G. Fogg, Esq., the editor of the Independent Democrat. Mr. Fogg was brought up a Democrat, and ardently supported Mr. Polk in 1844. He disbelieved in the policy, or constitutionality, of the asnexation of Texas, in the necessity of the Mexican war, and in the general legislation of the last few years in regard to slavery. Consequently he is not, and has not been for years, a Democrat, in the present acceptation of that term. But he is a gentieman of superior scholarship, education, and talents; has been Secretary of State of New Hampshire, and for a long time a successful editor of the paper which he now contrals. He lives in the same town with General Pierce and General Peaslee, and in that town, and out of it, and throughout the State, possesses a reputation as far above reproach of every kind as any man in the State.

We say, without fear of contradiction, that if General Pierce stands as unimpeachable in merals and integrity as does George G. Fogg, he possesses a reputation against which "mendacity" and "malignity" are fated to throw only Respectfully, AMOS TUCK. harmless weapons.
